Thirty-Fourth Annual New Jersey All-State High School Symphonic Band Concert

Lakewood High School, Lakewood, New Jersey FEBRUARY 18, 1973

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The New Jersey Music Educators Association, a department of the New Jersey Education Association, wishes to express its appreciation to the Lakewood Board of Education, Dr. William Mattlin, Superintendent of Schools, for the many years extended and for the use of the facilities for the concert.

Appreciation and thanks are extended to parents and friends of the All-State band members and to the many schools and organizations who assisted.
DR. FREDERICK FENNELL

Fennell joined the University of Miami School of Music September 1, 1965 as Conductor in Residence. He is the Raymond School of Music of the University of Miami from 1965 to 1968, Dr. Fennell was the Assistant to the Director of the University 1962-1964. In addition to conducting the University of Miami Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Fennell conducts the University of Miami Symphonic Wind Ensemble, the University Band, and the Miami University Wind Ensemble. The University Band is based at the University of Miami in 1962, and the Wind Ensemble is based at the University of Miami in 1962.

He has conducted with the University of Miami, Dr. Fennell also conducted the school's Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Orchestra and Opera Theater. During the 1961-1962 season, he was appointed by Howard Hanson for the Eastern Philharmonic of three-month tour of Europe, the Middle East, and Russia, sponsored by the U.S. Department of State. He is the conductor of numerous bands and orchestras throughout America, and has been cited by the National Federation of Music Teachers and Composers for outstanding services on behalf of American music.

GENE WITHERSPOON

Symphonic Band Conductor

Gene Witherspoon serves as Head of the Music Department and Director of Bands at Arkansas Polytechnic College in Russellville, Arkansas. During his 23-year tenure at Arkansas Poly, he has developed the largest music teachers preparation program in the state of Arkansas.

The Arkansas Tech Symphony Band, under Mr. Witherspoon’s direction, has been featured on three professional music organization national convention programs—the Music Educators National Conference in 1961, the College Band Directors National Association in 1967, and the American School Band Directors National Association in 1969. Mr. Witherspoon served as president of the Twelve Southland Division of MENC and was a member of the National MENC Board for two years. He has served as a conductor of All-State groups in Alabama, Mississippi, Missouri, Texas, Virginia, and Arkansas and has served as clinician, guest conductor, and workshop director in 14 additional states.

STANLEY D. HETTINGER

Wind Ensemble Conductor

Stanley D. Hettinger is Director of Bands and Assistant Professor of Music at the University of New Hampshire. He received his undergraduate education at Ohio State University, where he studied with Dr. Donald L. Mitchell. He holds a Master of Music Education degree from Vandercook College of Music. During his tenure at the University of New Hampshire, Mr. Hettinger has successfully taught to raise the musical standards of the Band to higher levels of production.

Mr. Hettinger has conducted festival and All-State Bands throughout New England and is frequent adjudicator. In addition, he is the founder and Director of the Northeast Instrumental Music Conference which has run for two years bringing musicians and educators together for three days on the UNH campus.

FRANK L. BATTISTI
Conductor - Symphonic Band

Mr. Battisti, Chairman of the Music Education Department of the New England Conservatory, is conductor of the famed New England Wind Ensemble. Under Mr. Battisti's leadership, the Ensemble has established a national reputation as one of the premier ensembles of its kind. One of the foremost authorities on wind music literature, he has conducted wind ensembles and bands for over 20 years. During this period, he was director of bands at Ithaca High School, Ithaca, New York where his band earned a national reputation through its continuous high level of performance at major music conferences and for its unique commissioning works project. From 1967-69, Mr. Battisti was conductor of the Baldwin-Wallace College Symphonic Wind Ensemble. He was appointed to the faculty of the New England Conservatory in 1969. Mr. Battisti is president-elect of the College Band Directors National Association and the founder of the National Wind Ensemble Conference.

RICHARD B. CASTIGLIONE
Conductor - Wind Ensemble

Mr. Castiglione holds a BS and MS in music and Music Education. As a professional musician, he played trumpet and conducted at the radio and TV studios in New York City. He has conducted the symphonic winds at the Manhattan School of Music and the Philadelphia Music Academy. At the Philadelphia Musical Academy he also served as Dean of Students and later as Dean of the College. Mr. Castiglione was supervisor of music in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania School System and is very active as a clinician and conductor for regional and all-state groups. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha and is listed in the Outstanding Educators of America. Mr. Castiglione is presently Director of the Amherst Music Center in Raymond, Maine.
