Mr. Winter is Associate Professor of Music and Director of Bands at the Ithaca College School of Music where he conducts the Wind Ensemble and teaches undergraduate and graduate conducting and wind literature. Known for his championing of contemporary music, Mr. Winter has received praise for his interpretations from such composers as Karel Husa, Lucas Foss, Witold Lutoslawski, Gunther Schuller, Joseph Schwantner, Samuel Adler and David Amram.

His guest conducting and teaching have taken him across the United States and abroad, most recently to the Republic of Malaysia as a cultural specialist sponsored by the United States Information Agency. His recordings with the Ithaca College Wind Ensemble have brought them national and international recognition, having been played on National Public Radio stations here and in Europe. These activities and his research in wind literature have resulted in his being selected as a clinician and music editor for the publishing firm of Boosey and Hawkes. Mr. Winter holds degrees from the University of Idaho (M.M. and B.Mus.Ed.) and was in residence at the Eastman School of Music for two years while working toward the D.M.A degree in conducting. In addition to extensive public school teaching, he has also taught at Walla Walla College, Purdue University and Oregon State University. While at the Eastman School he served as assistant conductor of the Eastman Wind Ensemble and Wind Orchestra, studied privately with Donald Hunsberger and David Effron, and taught graduate conducting.
